OCT 16 - TORONTO- NAIROBI

Depart Toronto for Nairobi via Amsterdam

OCT 17 - NAIROBI

Evening arrival, meet your driver-ranger and transfer to your hotel.

OCT 18 - NAIROBI- MASAI MARA NATIONAL RESERVE

Depart for Masai Mara National Reserve in the southwest of the country. In the afternoon, embark on a game drive in the vast savannah inhabited by an infinite variety of animals: lions, cheetahs, antelopes of all kinds, buffalo, giraffes and elephants. You will see marshes that abound with hippos and crocodiles. Return to camp at sunset. B/L/D

OCT 19 - MASAI MARA NATIONAL RESERVE

Tea or coffee before a game drive at sunrise. The density of the wildlife is such that something extraordinary always happens in Masai Mara National Reserve. Return to camp for breakfast buffet. Set off on another game drive in the vast landscapes of this reserve, where it sometimes feels like all the animals in creation are gathered. Dinner at the camp. Free time and another animal game drive until sunset, when the beasts go hunting. B/L/D

OCT 20 - MASAI MARA NATIONAL RESERVE- NAKURU NATIONAL PARK

Drive to Nakuru, through the volcanic landscapes of the famous Rift Valley. Settle into the lodge. Game drive in the afternoon around the lake, surrounded by forests of gigantic trees. Return to the lodge at sunset. B/L/D

OCT 21 - NAKURU NATIONAL PARK- NAIROBI- AMBOSELI NATIONAL PARK

In the morning, set off on a game drive in the park, famous for the rhinos that can be hard to spot, although it is common to see amazing colonies of flamingos, which congregate by the thousands in certain periods. Depart to Nairobi to admire the panorama of the Rift Valley. Lunch at Carnivore restaurant. Drive to Amboseli National Park, a famous reserve at the foot of Kilimanjaro, postcard-worthy Africa! B/L/D

OCT 22 - AMBOSELI NATIONAL PARK- TARANGIRE NATIONAL PARK

You'll have time for tea or coffee before embarking on a game drive at daybreak to admire elephants, giraffes, zebras, antelopes, lions and cheetahs against a backdrop of snowy peaks. Return to the lodge for a buffet breakfast. Depart for the border crossing at Namanga before continuing on to Arusha. Travel to Tarangire. B/L/D

OCT 23 - TARANGIRE NATIONAL PARK- SERENGETI NATIONAL PARK

Have some tea or coffee before setting off on a game drive along the river to an area with a high concentration of impalas, giraffes, waterbucks, elks, rhinoceroses and elephants. Buffet breakfast, then it's time for a second game drive among the baobabs and acacias, on the lookout for more animals. Packed lunch on the way to the Serengeti, Tanzania's largest national park. You'll be amazed by the vast vistas and large herds of herbivores, closely followed by their natural predators that cross the savannah. B/L/D

OCT 24 - SERENGETI NATIONAL PARK

Early morning wake up with time for tea or coffee before setting out on a game drive at daybreak. Buffet breakfast at the lodge. Spend the morning on safari in the Serengeti's immense savannahs, home to countless amazing animals, including big cats. Lunch, followed by another game drive. Lovers of wide open spaces will be in seventh heaven. Return to the lodge at sunset. B/L/D

OCT 25 - SERENGETI NATIONAL PARK- N'GORONGORO

Travel to Olduvai Gorge, considered the cradle of humanity. Visit the small museum that depicts the beginnings of mankind on earth. Continue to N'Gorongoro. B/L/D

OCT 26 - N'GORONGORO

Full-day game drives in the N'Gorongoro crater, an extinct volcano with a thriving animal population. You will be amazed by the spectacle unfolding before your eyes during the descent. Thousands of animals live in the reserve, and it is even common to run across rhinoceroses, which are notoriously difficult to spot. Picnic-style lunch. Return to the lodge in late afternoon. B/L/D

OCT 27 - N'GORONGORO- ARUSHA- TORONTO

Depart for Arusha for a quick panoramic tour of the second largest city in Tanzania. Then, visit the Culture and History Museum before a short drive through Arusha with your guide/driver. Transfer to the airport for your return flight to Toronto via Amsterdam. B/L

OCT 28 - TORONTO
